

Friday, November 3, 2006

Quiz

1. True or False: My 7th period class at SHS decided as a group that I should hand out dry toast in baggies for Halloween.
2. True or False: I encountered an SHS student in Wal-Mart, who flexed her muscles and growled at me, and I said, "If you were as intellectually tough as you are pretending to be physically tough, you'd be doing better in my class."
3. True or False: Josh F. said, "I just learned how to make it go up and down!"<sup>1</sup>
4. True or False: I handed out dry toast in baggies for Halloween.
5. True or False: I had the following exchange with a student after school: Student: "I just don't get it." Me: "What don't you get." Student: "What any of the words mean." Me: "Have you studied them? Have you tried to learn them?" Student: "No."
6. True or False: The following appeared in the SHS announcements: "Mr. Bogus' 4th period biology students need to pick up their chapter 4 study guides today in order to study for your test on Thursday. He's a knucklehead and forgot to give those back to you on Tuesday."
7. True or False: Mr. Bogus is the real name of a real person.
8. True or False: A student told me she was so upset her parents wouldn't let her come to my house on Halloween to get dry toast in a baggie that she stole a package of butter from SHS's cafeteria, sneaked out of her house at 1:30 a.m., walked to my house, and placed the package of butter on the hood of my car.
9. True or False: She got the wrong car.
10. True or False: I had the following exchange with a student during class: Me: "To learn a foreign language you must be like the Greek athlete Milo who carried a calf across a field every day for a year so that by the end of the year, he was carrying a full-grown bull across the field." Student: "Is that like the guy who had to roll a boulder up a hill forever?" Me: "Sisyphus? No, that's what teaching is like."

---

<sup>1</sup>after he made a sound, the pitch of which rose and fell, with his mouth and hands.